

Kenexa Expands Global RPO Business With Opening of New Center of Excellence

- Facility Will Bring Jobs to Cary, N.C. -

WAYNE, Pa. (December 13, 2011) - Kenexa (NYSE: KNXA), a global provider of business solutions for human resources, today announced plans to expand its recruitment process outsourcing (RPO) operations with the opening of a Center of Excellence facility in Cary, N.C. The new facility will add 45 jobs to the area and support Kenexa's clients throughout North America.

The development of the Center of Excellence is a result of continued growth for Kenexa's RPO business. By opening the facility in Cary, a suburb of Raleigh, Kenexa strengthens its position as a global leader in providing expert recruitment services for its clients. Kenexa's Centers of Excellence are located around the world, including facilities in Shanghai, China; Dubai, UAE; Buenos Aires, Argentina; Krakow, Poland; Vizag, India; and Frisco, Texas.

The Center of Excellence in Cary will include recruiters, coordinators and staffing consultants to enhance Kenexa's award-winning recruitment services.

"We're pleased to open this new Center of Excellence as it strengthens our global delivery footprint while giving Kenexa access to significant recruiting talent in the Raleigh-Durham area," said Phil Stewart, president of Kenexa's RPO business unit. "Our new Center of Excellence will also strengthen our relationships with many of our clients."

Information about Kenexa's RPO offerings can be found at <http://www.kenexa.com/rpo>.
